

TEACH FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM WINTER 2009

Teachers Educating Across Cultures in Harmony (TEACH) is a program aimed at cross cultural exchanges and increased knowledge between educators in the US and the Arab World. In December 2009, the Bilateral US-Arab Chamber of Commerce will take a delegation of selected instructors to Qatar and Saudi Arabia for the purpose of raising awareness, understanding, and cooperation between educators in the US and the Middle East. This exchange will develop a cadre of instructors who can bring their experience into the classroom and transfer cultural understanding into educational work.

Saudi Arabia December 28-30, 2009	Qatar December 30, 2009 – January 3, 2010
Exclusive opportunity to visit the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Go behind the veil and meet with colleagues to share experiences and learn about the vision, goals and transformation of this Arabian Gulf nation. Visit teachers, schools, and marketplaces in Damman. Experience breathtaking sights and delectable cuisine. Get a firsthand look at Saudi Aramco, the world's largest energy company and its role in the Kingdom economy and global energy marketplace.	Qatar's National Vision: Moving towards knowledge based economy. Qatar's reform minded leadership is diversifying the economic base of the country beyond oil and gas. They have transformed their wealth into modern health facilities, tourism infrastructure, and western style education institutions. Participants will witness the world's fastest growing economy and learn how society is coping with those changes while maintaining their cultural heritage.

Participation fee for the trip: $1,200.00 (subject to change)

International Roundtrip Airfare
Airfare between Saudi Arabia and Qatar
Hotel Accommodations
Ground Transportation

Excursion Fees
Some Meals
Networking Receptions
Visas

Aseel Saqer aseel@bilateralchamber.org

Karima Richardson karima@bilateralchamber.org 713.880.8168 for information